If Hert landed the joh a special train was to be chartered by the Republican League, decorated by big streamers of tife Chesley Club and on to Washington for the Inauguration. Headed by the Keystone police band and Abie Netter, the Republican city and county empioyes would march down Pennsylvanin avenue with colors flying. The next section was to be composed of soft drink men, who just happen to be friendly to the Hert-Searcy-Chilton machine while the third section was to be composed of the crap-shooting followers of the machine, the colored political leaders heing at the head of this section. The Keystone police band would he playing "All Hail to the Creosote man Bob, the near Mayor and him if he didn't cali the police which have invariably found favor "Howdy Ed" pictured themselves as names. TERRIBLE INDICTMENT.

That was a terrible indictment of British methods in Ireland which was brought to the attention of the members of the British Parliament by President De Valera in his letter last week. No member of Parliament can now say that he does not know waht is going on in Ireland. And these things will go on just as long as Parliament continues to uphold the Lloyd George Ministry. The responsibility is not alone on the "Black and Tans," but upon every member of the British Parllament who supports the coalltion government.

THIRTEEN MURDERED,

From Cork the Associated Press reports that thirteen civilians were killed and eight captured, of whom three were wounded, in an engage ment Sunday afternoon in the dis-trict between Lisgoold and Midletrict between Lisgoold and Midleton, County Cork, according to a General Headquarters report. This is believed to be the largest number of casualties among the members of Irish Republican army in any single encounter. A detachment of the Hampahire Regiment surprised a party of civilians in a house on the Gutskirts of Midleton. The civilian forces split up, some of them remaining in the house, while the shame? And the second comment is the cruel absurdity of the policy of frightfulness. Every one is agreed that the murder gang in Ireland is a small group of desperate men over whom the general body of the people have no more sympathy than Jack the Ripper. Lloyd George, in the House of Commons, has himself admitted thia. The collective vengeance wreaked on Cork did not touch the criminals. It punished a whole population, who, whatever their political aympathies, have had no association with crime. If Cork marked a closed chapter there would be room for hope. But there is no evidence of that. There is abundant evidence to the con-tbe publication of that verdict.

The truth about Cork is known to the world. We English must make a clean breast of it, publicly and officialiy. It is only by that act of simple honeaty that we can hope to put ourselves right with the public opinion of civilized society.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Emily Campbell, beloved wife of Whilam J. Campbell, 1908 Duker avenue, a woman well known In all parts of the city, beloved by hundreds of friends and acquaintances, passed away following an operation at St. Anthony's Hospitai. She had not been well for n month, but her age, seventy-seven years, left her unable to stand the ordeal. Mrs. Campbell was an earnest church and charitable worker and her many kind deeds endeared her to a mustitude of persons. She was a woman who took a great interest and pride in her family and all who knew her honored her as an up-right, Christinn mother. She was frequently in attendance at the houses of the sick and was niways present to offer condolence in times of mourning. Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, James J., Willa'm T., Bernard J. and Robert E. Campbeil, and one daughter, Miss Jennie Campbell. The funeral was held Saturday morning with soiemn requiem high mass at St. Agnes church on the Newburg road. A woman loved and respected by
